INVIGORATING CORDIAL Roots, which have been found after years of es perience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended, and hence whilst it is presented to the public as an effica-cious remedy, it is also known to be of that character on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Hæmorrhages Disordered Sterility, Menstruation, or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for Deblitty arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confine to bed for some time, for females of the confine of the desired confiners of the confiners of

after confine abortion or miscarriage, this cordial can excelled in its salutary effects

if not superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.—Henry's Invigorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. It as sists nature to brace the whole system, check ex-cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom

Young Men.-That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorance of the danger to which they subject themselves

Nervous Debility, weakness of the system and premature decay. Many of you may now be suffering, misted as to the cause or source of distance of the system. ease. To those, then, who by excess have brought on themselves premature impotency, involuntary seminal emissions, weakness and shrivelling of the genital organs, nervous affection, or any ether consequences of unrestricted indulgence of the consequences of un sensity passions, occasioning the secessity of re-

Marriage, lessening both mental and bodily ca tacty, hold! Henry's Invigorating Cordial, a med-cine that is purely vegetable, will aid nature to restore these important functions to a healthy state and will preve of service to you. It possesses rare virtues, is a general remover of disease, and strengthener of the system.

As a Tonic Medicine, it is unsurpassed. We do not place this cordial on a footing with quack medicines, and, as is customary, append a long ast of recommendations, certificates, &c., beginning with "Hear what the Preacher says," and such like; it is not necessary, for "Henry's Invig-orating Cordial" only needs a trial to prove that will accomplish all we say. The Genuine "Henry's Invigorating Cordial" is put up in eight oz. pannel bottles, and is easily recognised by the manufacturer's signature on the label of each bottle, (to counterfeit which

Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chancery.

Christopher Adams, complainant, James Guthrie, Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants. Samuel Byington, and Richard Wallach,

THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government. hon of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of Jan-uary, A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum or four thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isane N. Comstock assigned to the complainant in the year 1852. signed their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wal-lach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the governmen cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract.

The object of said sill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defendants, or their representatives, and the defendants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hundred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representatives, and such other and further decree as to this tives, and such other and further decree as to this court shall seem right and proper. The said Amos Adams and the said Isaac N. Comstock, named in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the pro-ess of the court. It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint agrinst the defendants, shall be taken for confessed against the said Amos Adams and Isauc N. Comstock, and such decree made in the premises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Mon-day in May next, and answer the said bill, and day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be pressed by the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second Monday in May next.

Given at rules, the first Monday of January, 1855, being the first day of January, 1855, being the first day of January, 1855.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL,

In this city, will be re-opened for the reception of guests on the 27th of this month. The removal of the Kitchen from the basement to the rear of the building, and the alterations in and about the Dining Rooms, will add greatly to the convenience and comfort of its guests. The table will be furnished with the best the markets can afford, and served in the best style, and no expense or labor will be spared to render the-house, in every respect, equal to any in the country. The subscriber, therefore, trusts that a generous public will continue the liberal patronage which has always been extended to the house.
